FREMANTLE PRISON
The Convict Establishment

Fremantle Prison is one of Western Australia's most iconic heritage sites and a major tourist attraction. Built by convicts in the 1850s, it served as a maximum-security prison until closing in 1991. Today, it stands as the only World Heritage-listed building in WA and offers a rare glimpse into the state's colonial and penal history.

Visitors can explore rich history through our Daily Guided Tours, brave the underground Tunnels Tour, or uncover eerie tales on our Torchlight Tours.

Open daily between 9.00am and 5.00pm, excluding Good Friday and Christmas Day.

Current pricing and tour conditions are available on our website
